

Lehto and Wright Educational Outreach Programs:

What is Folk Music? – Redefining a Genre

This is a presentation geared towards all ages and explores the meaning of “Folk Music” and how it has influenced all styles/genres of modern music.

This includes using examples of pieces suggested by audience members, in addition to material provided by Lehto & Wright.

The presentation explores and asks the questions: What purpose and meaning does music have to the individuals present?

- What/Who do they listen to?
- Why do they listen?
- Why do you like what you like?

Lehto & Wright will then address the question, “How does folk music tie into the music of modern times?”

Participants’ walk away with a new appreciation for music in general.

Celtic and American Folk-Rock: A History and Demonstration

This is a presentation geared towards musicians and music students or anyone with an interest in the subject of Celtic and American Folk-Rock. Lehto & Wright will discuss the specifics of interpreting and rearranging traditional music into a rock context. Real time examples will be provided, bringing traditional songs and tunes into the era of electricity.

The presentation also includes the history of the genre with specific bands and timelines cited.
